CHARLOTTESVILLE, VA., June 15.—
The Board of Visitors of the University of Virginia met this morning in regular ression, with every mimber present. Dr.
Juli B. Barringer tendered his resignation as chairman of the faculty, to take effect at once, and the board appointed
Dr. James Morris Page, desn of the Academic Faculty, to fill the vacancy. Dr.
Barringer, it is understood, has engagements for the summer months, which prevented him from continuing in office until the inauguration of a president of the institution.

There was practically no gossip among the members concerning the future president of the institution, there being other matters to engage the attention of the board throughout the day.

ROOSEVELT IMPROMPTU

A Rumor About the President's Speech

at the University.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

WASHINGTON, D. C., June 15.—A rumor was afloat this afternoon to the effect that in his specch at the University of Virginia to-morrow President Roosevelt would declare against the movement to reduce the representation of the South in Congress, because of the disfranchisement of the negro. I was informed at the White House that Mr. Roosevelt had not prepared a line of the address to be delivered to-morrow, and that it would be entirely impromptu.

There is no ground, apparently, for the rumor.

The train bearing the President and party will leave here at $130 o'clock to-morrow morning. In the party will be the President, Mrs. Roosevelt, Surgeon-General Rizey, Secretary Loeb, Assistant Secretary Loemis and two or three stenographers. The train returning will leave Charlottesville at 7:30 o'clock P. M. The party will have dinner on the train.

CHARLOTTESVILLE, VA., June 15.—
To-day in the commencement programme at the University of Virginia was given over to the Literary Societies—the Washington and Jefferson. The annual celebration occurred at noon in the public hall before a large audience. Mr. Chas.

7. Williams, of Bland, Va., president of the Jefferson Bociety, presided and inroduced the medalists, Mr. William Carroll Latimer, of Belton, S. C., who won the debaters' medal, offered by the Board of Visitors of the University and valued at $60; Mr. J. D. McInnis, of Meridian, Miss., who won the orators' medal in the Washinston Society, had for his subject "Robert E. Lee." The orator medalist in the Jefferson Society was Mr. William Thomas Angiln, of Martineville, Va., who spoke on "The South's Place in the Nation."

BLACKSBURG, VA., June 15.—The Virginia Polytechnic Institute commencent exercises began Saturday night with the annual celebration of the Lee with the annual celebration of the Lee Literary Society.

The last base-ball season with V. P. I. was a successful one, and to show the nine their appreciation of work done, the corps of cadets presented each member of the team with a V. P. I. cap.

Sunday morning, June the 14th, at 11 A. M., the baccalaurente address was delivered by Rev. W. A. Barr, D. D., of Norfolk, Va. Dr. Barr's sermon was one of the ablest sermons ever delivered at any commencement exercises, and was attended and heard by perhaps the largest crowd ever at a Sunday morning service in the auditorium.

On Sunday night the friends of Virginia Polytechnic Institute were again present to listen to one of the most gifted ministers of the South, Rev. It. D. Smart. D. D., of Norfolk, Va., who addressed the Young Men's Christian Association.

Dr. Smart's tox was taken from the 18th verse 18th Matthew. "Whom Do Mon Say that I, the Son of Man. Am."

Hon. Harry St. George Tucker addressed the literary societies this morning at 11 A. M. Competative drill and dress-parade took place this afternoon.

Now is the time to get rid of that ccugh, for if you let it hang on no one can tell what the result may be. Others have been cured of their coughs very quickly by using Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. Mr. A. J. Da Costa, of Gaines-ville, Fla., says: "A friend of mine, a painter of this town, who was nearly dead with a cough, was cured by one bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. He also recommended it to a lady here, who was suffering from grippe and a severe cough. She gratified him by trying it, and was cured by one email bottle." The remedy is for sale by all fruggists.

pastor of the First Baptist Church, Raleigh, N. C. Last night the exercises of the graduating class occurred. The sermon was one of more than usual power. The young men rendered an attractive programme last night, which a large audience greatly enjoyed and cordially applauded. The trustees of the college met in annual session yesterday at noon, and the day was taken up in the transaction of routine matters. The president of the college made his annual report, which showed the institution was prospering as never before.

This is the first time so large a number of young women have been among the graduates. For the past two or three years one young lady has been among the graduates on similar occasons, but never so many before. The historian of the academic graduates, Mr. J. E. Mr. William E. Nelson was the historian for the law class, and briefly and brighily gave aketches of his colleagues. He prophesied for them great success and warned them that if they did not guide their legal barks clear of certain things, such as not telling the truth, they would land before Justice John. This did not seem to frighten them much, but it caused merriment among the audience.

tor of the academic department. This gentleman delivered an address which showed considerable reading and original thinking. It was receive by the audience with many evidences of approval. Vice-President Ritter presented Mr. J. E. Oliver, bistorian for the academic department, as the last speaker. This gentleman handled the past and the future of his colleagues with gloves off, and in a most acceptable manner to the audience. Mr. Oliver was unusually happy in his remarks. He kept his hearers laughing much of the time, and the "sweet girl graduate," if it be permissible to use that expression just once more, had little mercy at his hands, while the audience had a generous supply of fun at hers.

President Tyler thanked the audience for their sufficient interest to attend, and at 10:30 o'clock bade all "good night."

It was found there by Miss Kirker, of Hampton, a Ruest whe arrived yesterday, and was turned over to Manager Fry. He promptly communicated with Mrs. Reede, informing her of the recovery of the jeweled band. Meanwhile Mrs. Reede had missed the ring and remembered where she had left it, and before leaving the railway station had sent word to the management. Before this information renched him, however, Manager Fry had the ring turned over to him by the lady, named. The preclous ornament will be expressed to the loser to-day. It is an unusually handsome cluster of five stones, which she values at the Sum stated.

Among the arrivals at the Jefferson last night were Captain and Mrs. Claude H. Miller, United States army, on their bridal trip. Captain Miller is a Lynchburg boy, who has won distinction and rapid promotion in the army. He is a son of Mr. Thomas C. Miller, teacher in the Lynchburg High School, and his bride is a beautiful New York lady. Mr. Miller is a West Fointer. The couvie will visit his father in Lynchburg before returning to West Point, where the groom is stationed.
